Lk 1,67-79 – Let yourself be touched

67 And John's father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied, saying, 68 "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David, 70 as he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets from of old,
71 that we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us;
72 to show the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant,
73 the oath that he swore to our father Abraham, to grant us
74 that we, being delivered from the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear,
75 in holiness and righteousness before him all our days.
76 And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High; for you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways,
77 to give knowledge of salvation to his people in the forgiveness of their sins,
78 because of the tender mercy of our God, whereby the sunrise shall visit us from on high 79 to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace."

Questions

- Zacharias tells a lot about tradition. What does the tradition of our church and our faith mean to you?
- What does "holy" mean to you? What does "righteousness of God" mean to you?
- What is your way of peace?
- Have you ever had a moment when joy and enthusiasm broke out in you that you couldn't hold back any longer? Tell us how it was.
- Have you ever let the Holy Spirit "grab you" and talked enthusiastically about Jesus or God? How was it? If not, was something holding you back? What?

Bible Introduction

This week we will do BibleSharing.

1. The bibletext is read again out loud.
2. Everyone reads out single words, phrases, verses, that stick on your mind/raise questions/that leave a nasty taste. Important: only name it from the text! It will be discussed later!
3. Everyone can now say something about his/her word/frase/verse and the others can ask questions or add their thoughts.

This way a conversation starts.
