Lk 24,13-21.25-33 - Emmaus

13 That very day two of them were going to a village named Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem,
14 and they were talking with each other about all these things that had happened.
15 While they were talking and discussing together, Jesus himself drew near and went with them.
16 But their eyes were kept from recognizing him.
17 And he said to them, "What is this conversation that you are holding with each other as you walk?" And they stood still, looking sad.
18 Then one of them, named Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?"
19 And he said to them, "What things?" And they said to him, "Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, a man who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people,
20 and how our chief priests and rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him.
21 But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened.
25 And he said to them, "O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!
26 Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?"
27 And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he interpreted to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself.
28 So they drew near to the village to which they were going. He acted as if he were going farther,
29 but they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, for it is toward evening and the day is now far spent." So he went in to stay with them.
30 When he was at table with them, he took the bread and blessed and broke it and gave it to them.
31 And their eyes were opened, and they recognized him. And he vanished from their sight.
32 They said to each other, "Did not our hearts burn within us while he talked to us on the road, while he opened to us the Scriptures?"
33 And they rose that same hour and returned to Jerusalem. And they found the eleven and those who were with them gathered together.

Questions (if needed)

- How do you feel when you're sad? What do you recognize, what do you lose sight of?
- Has anyone ever stood by your side during a difficult time? How did he / she manage to get you out of your hole?
- Where else have you had tomatoes in front of your eyes? So didn't see what was really going on? How did you react when you noticed?
- Have you ever had, thinking in retrospect, that Jesus was by your side?

Bible Introduction

This week we will do BibleSharing.

1. The bibletext is read again out loud.
2. Everyone reads out single words, phrases, verses, that stick on your mind/raise questions/that leave a nasty taste. Important: only name it from the text! It will be discussed later!
3. Everyone can now say something about his/her word/frase/verse and the others can ask questions or add their thoughts.

This way a conversation starts.
